HOTDISH SUPPER FUNDRAISER

The hotdish supper on Saturday, October 12th was very busy. We had a lot of hungry guests and a tremendous meal because of all the great dishes shared by all of our Lions members. Thank you for all your donations and support. We will be making a donation to the Howard Lake Royalty program with the proceeds.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

Our annual Halloween party was a lot of fun. We had a lot of little ghosts and goblins. There were many games and a table loaded with prizes for all to purchase with the tickets they won playing the games. There were also a bunch of door prizes given away. Thank you to Lion Bonnie for chairing this event and to all the Lions who were able to help out.

PEACE POSTERS

We are again doing the Peace Poster contest sponsored by Lions International. Kristi Main is again working with her students at school to do the drawings. Kristi will be at our November 7th meeting with the posters for us to judge. The winner will be sent to the district to be judged at the Mid-Winter convention. Thank you to Kristi for your help in this great project.

SILENT SANTA

We are again doing the Silent Santa Program. We will be doing our annual breakfast buffet on December 8th. We are also planning on having pictures with Santa as in the past. We will be discussing and making plans for this at our meeting on November 7th.

MEAT RAFFLE

The Meat raffle started up again on October 5th at Troubles. The time will remain the same, 3:00 p.m. We will need volunteers to work each week. Troubles will be offering new specials this year. Let's all help out and make it another great year.
